

Press Release

StuttCard

Just the ticket for your city trip to Stuttgart

The StuttCard is the city discovery ticket for any trip to Baden-Württemberg's state capital. It allows tourists free admission to nearly all of Stuttgart's museums and to many of its leisure facilities and, with the StuttCard PLUS, free travel on public transport throughout the Stuttgart region.

Museums, mineral spas or excursion destinations: the StuttCard provides free admission and a host of other advantages with 59 partners in Stuttgart and the surrounding region, making it the ideal companion for a short stay. The card is available for 24, 48 or 72 hours, with the additional option of an ticket for the local public transport network. On presentation of the StuttCard, visitors have free admission to numerous museums and many other tourist attractions, as well as other discounts at restaurants and theatres. Art enthusiasts will enjoy the Weissenhof Museum, the Stuttgart State Gallery and other museums in the region, such as the Museum of Modern Literature in Marbach or the Galerie Stihl in Waiblingen. Automobile and technology fans can visit the outstanding Mercedes-Benz and Porsche Museums or the SWR TV Tower Stuttgart. There's also free admission to Stuttgart's three mineral spas – the LEUZE, Mineralbad Berg and SoleBad Cannstatt – and to the Royal Burial Chapel on the Württemberg, the Royal Palace of Ludwigsburg or Beuren Open-air Museum. As an option, the StuttCard PLUS is also valid as a ticket on the entire network of the Stuttgart Transport and Tariff Association (VVS).

The StuttCard and the StuttCard PLUS are only available as digital cards on the Internet at www.stuttcard.com or with further information at the Tourist Information i-Punkt, Marktstraße 2 (in the House of Tourism).

	24h	48h	72h
